Dr. Crawford's Welcome Statement

This educational tour to Egypt, Ta-Merry, the holy land of our ancestors will be an experience that is truly unforgettable. Dr. Clinton Crawford, the tour leader, is also the author of Recasting Ancient Egypt in the African Context, 1996. He is a professor at Medgar Evers College where he teaches the History of African Art among other courses about African civilizations. See Egypt in a way that television will not show you.

Our Study Tour will continue to explore and examine the culture, art and architecture of ancient Egypt. It also includes a 4-day, 5-star luxury cruise on the Nile, luxury hotels & shopping. Dr. Crawford, our onsite tour guide, will provide an informative African-centered perspective as we visit the Pyramids at Giza and Saqqara, the Giza Sphinx, the temples at Philae, Kom Ombo, Abu Simbel, Edfu, Karnak, Luxor, the Valley of the Kings, Dendera and Abydos, the sites of the Immaculate Conception, the Cairo and Nubian museums, a Nubian village, and much more.

Our evenings will feature informative lectures by Dr. Crawford. This study tour is one that all people of African ancestry around the world must experience in their lifetime. Join Dr. Crawford and others on this journey back to the ancient future.
