Dr. Crawford's
Welcome Statement

This educational tour to Ethiopia, the land where time began, is also the birthplace of Dinknesh, the mother of all mankind. Ethiopia still holds the distinction as the place of Orthodox Christianity and the victorious Battle of Adwa. Join me as we visit Addis Ababa, the tekenu of Axum, the magnificent rock-hewn churches, Lake Tana, Tissisat Falls, and more.

Author of Recasting Ancient Egypt in the African Context, 1996, Dr. Crawford is a professor at Medgar Evers College where he teaches the History of African Art among other courses about African civilizations. His interest in Africa is unbending and that is what he will share with you on this journey back to the ancient future.

DAILY ITINERARY

Day 1 - Depart from LaGuardia International Airport (NY) for New York/tri-state travelers, then onto Dulles (Washington, DC)

Day 2 - Arrive in Addis Ababa, be met at the airport. Hotel check-in. Evening orientation.

Day 3 - City tour of Addis Ababa, continues. Visit National Museum to see remains of Dinknesh (Lucy), dating 3.5 million years; Trinity Cathedral, known for its notable paintings, murals, beautiful stained glass windows and tombs of prominent figures including Emperor Haile Selassie; Ethnological Museum, Mount Entoto to see stupendous view of the city and visit Mercato, the largest open air marketplace in Africa. Depart for Bahir Dar. Hotel check in. (B/D)

Day 4 - Bahir Dar is located on the shores of Lake Tana. Visit the majestic Tissisat Falls in the morning. In the afternoon, boat ride over Lake Tana to visit the ancient island Monastery of Ura Kidane Mihret containing frescos, elaborately painted ceiling, church crosses, crowns and attire of former Ethiopian Kings. See the tankwas, which resemble the papyrus boats carved on the temples of Egypt. Evening lecture. (B/D)

Day 5 - Early breakfast at the hotel. Drive to Gondar. Hotel check-in. Visit the compound of medieval castles. See the baths, palaces and residences of King Fasiladas used for the annual Timket or Epiphany celebration. Visit the Church of Debre Berhan Selassie (Light of the Trinity) to see African frescos/murals and Ethiopian religious icons; Visit the African Agaw, Beta Israel (Falasha) people (descendants of Solomon and Queen Makeda (Queen of Sheba). Evening lecture. (B/D)

Day 6 - Flight to Lalibela. Hotel check in. Visit Ethiopia's most famous rock-hewn churches, mostly referred by many as "the living wonders of the world." We will walk to the village through the complex bewildering labyrinth of underground tunnels to the monastery where the monks and nuns live. Evening traditional coffee ceremony. (B/D)

Day 7 - Continue Lalibela sites. Visit second group of churches and surrounding sacred monasteries where holy water flows. (B/D)

Day 8 - Early morning flight to Axum, transfer to hotel. Afternoon visit to the tallest standing tekenu (obelisk) monolith hewn from a single piece of granite. See the granite stone tombs of the ancient Axumite Kings, the palace of Queen Makeda (Queen of Sheba). See the 16th century Cathedral of Mary Sion (St. Mary of Zion) that houses the Ark of the Covenant. See the Adwa Hills, where the Ethiopian army defeated Italy at the Battle of Adwa. Evening lecture. (B/D)

Day 9 - Return to Addis Ababa. Enjoy the final cultural farewell party in traditional Ethiopian style. (B/D)

Day 10 - Visit the Mercato Market, the largest open air market in Africa. Late evening departure from Addis Ababa to LGA (in NYC) Optional tour to Shashamane (B)

Day 11 - Arrival at LaGuardia International Airport (NY) with the memory of the sun and warmth from Ethiopia, East Africa.

B=Breakfast D=Dinner
