Dr. Crawford’s Welcome Statement

This Ghana Study Tour will lead you to where you can see, explore, and experience major historical sites in Ghana: Accra, Elmina Castle, Cape Coast, Kumasi, Asante region, cultural ceremonies, Kente weaving, and the numerous other arts, colorful market places, and above all, the most friendly people in the world.

Dr. Clinton Crawford, the tour leader, who has traveled to 8 other African countries, is also the author of Recasting Ancient Egypt in the African Context, 1996. He is a professor at Medgar Evers College of the City University of New York where he teaches the History of African Art among other courses about African civilizations. See Ghana in a way that television or anyone else will ever show you.

DAILY ITINERARY

Day 1 - Departure from NYC on to Accra, Ghana. Meals on flight.

Day 2 – En route to Accra (via Casablanca, Morocco) for early morning arrival.
